

Sri H. S. METGUD.—We may use these words after we get used to them.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Hon'ble Member will have to get used to them.

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—May I know whether you would consider the question of asking the Samskriti Prachar Sabha to find the equivalents for words current in North Karnatak and South Karnatak?

Mr. SPEAKER.—That is not for the Government to consider. If the Hon'ble Member wants me to consider that question, I will give my thought to it.

Sri A. R. NARASIMHA REDDY.—I would like to know whether there is at all any Sabha known as the Samskriti Prachar Sabha.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I myself do not know.

Sri J. K. PRANESACHARYA.—I suggest, Sir, that a small committee of experts might be appointed to examine this question. In fact, there are different words current not only for the word Maramath but also for the word Korathe. The Mysore people are using one word to mean 'deficit' and we are using another word for it. It is better that a small committee of experts be appointed to go into this question and find out words which might be readily understood by the mass of people throughout this new State.

Mr. SPEAKER.—As I have already said, this is a point for consideration. The question will be examined and, if possible, a committee will be appointed to define the meanings of such words.

The question hour is over.

PAPERS LAID ON THE TABLE

Mysore Legislature (Prohibition of Simultaneous Membership) Bill, 1956.

SECRETARY.—As required by rule 90 (f) of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Mysore Legislative Assembly, I lay on the Table of the House the Mysore Legislature (Prohibition of Simultaneous Membership) Bill, 1956 and the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation (Amendment) Bill, 1956, as passed by the Legislative Council on the 24th December 1956.

LEGISLATIVE BUSINESS.

SECRETARY.—The Minister for Home Affairs to move for consideration of the Mysore Legislature Salaries Bill, 1956.

Sri J. MOHAMED IMAM (Jagalur).—If I may suggest, the Ministers Salaries and Allowances Bill, 1956 might be taken up first, because that will facilitate the passing of the Legislature Salaries Bill. Some of the amendments are common. So, if the Ministers Salaries and Allowances Bill is passed first, the other one will not take much time.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Chief Minister is not here. What does it matter if we take the Legislature Salaries Bill now?

Sri J. MOHAMED IMAM.—When is he likely to come?

Mr. SPEAKER.—It is going to be taken and we are going to finish every Bill today.

Sri J. MOHAMED IMAM.—My difficulty is this. I have tabled some amendments and the first three amendments are common to both the Bills.

Mr. SPEAKER.—If they are common, they will not survive. Of course, there is no bar to his moving his amendments.

Sri J. MOHAMED IMAM.—Why not we take up the Khadi and Village Industries Bill? In the meanwhile, the Chief Minister might come.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I do not understand why we should not take up this Bill because this Bill is more urgent than the Khadi and Village Industries Bill.

Sri J. MOHAMED IMAM.—If we take up the Khadi and Village Industries Bill now and by the time it is finished if the Chief Minister comes, we can take up the Ministers Salaries and Allowances Bill. If the Ministers Salaries and Allowances Bill is finished there might not be any discussion on the Legislature Salaries Bill. It may result in speedy passage.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Minister in charge of the Khadi and Village Industries Bill is not present here.

Sri J. MOHAMED IMAM.—I submitted to the Chair the other day to issue necessary instructions to the Ministers to be present at the proper time. The Ministers know that today is set apart for taking up Bills and it is, therefore, their bounden duty to be present. If they are busy elsewhere and if they are not here in time, it is not our fault. They will be failing in their duty by not being present here. We came to an understanding that we must finish all the Bills today and so it is the duty of the Chief Minister and the other Ministers to be present here when the Bills, of which they are in charge, are taken up for consideration. I think that in such matters you should issue a warning to the Ministers.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I agree with the Leader of the Opposition that the Ministers concerned must be present here. But their difficulty is very real, because the other House is also sitting.

Sri J. MOHAMED IMAM.—It is not sitting now.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Just now I am told that the Chief Minister is not present because, according to the list of business for today, the Legislature Salaries Bill is to be taken up first. I have also noted that the Ministers are not present whenever their names are called. It happened during the question hour. I hope the Ministers will take a note of it and see that they are present in the House at the proper time, because, otherwise, it will be rather difficult for me to wait for the Ministers every time. Of course, I will wait if they could not be present on account of some urgent work. Otherwise, they will have to be present in the House and I hope they will co-operate with me.

Sri S. SRINIVASA IYENGAR (T. Narsipur).—I beg to submit to you, Sir, that the Bills that have been placed before the House by the Secretary as passed by the Legislative Council and copies of which have been supplied to us are in a very confused state of affairs. Some of the provisions in one Bill are found in the other Bills. May I suggest that the correct Bills may be supplied to us?

Mr. SPEAKER.—I had no occasion to look into the Bills. If the Hon'ble Member feels that there is something wrong, we shall discuss this matter later on. At this stage, it is not proper to consider it, because they are only laid on the Table of the House. I think it is better we take up the first Bill, namely, the Legislature Members Salaries Bill, as the Chief Minister is not here now.

*Sri M. V. RAMA RAO (Minister for Home Affairs and Law).—Sir, I really wanted to suggest that if Sri Imam, the Hon'ble the Leader of the Opposition, had any difficulty in regard to the Bill that is to be moved, then the other Bill which I have to place before the House for its consideration today might be taken up first. But I have no intention of departing from the direction given by the Chair. I shall move this Bill. But, if you, Sir, consider that the other Bill, namely, the Prevention of Disqualification Bill, can be taken up so as to enable the Hon'ble the Leader of the Opposition to discuss the Ministers Salaries and Allowances Bill before we take up the discussion of the Legislature Salaries Bill, we can do that.

Mr. SPEAKER.—It is a small Bill and it can be taken up.

MYSORE LEGISLATURE (PREVENTION OF DISQUALIFICATION) BILL, 1956.

Motion to consider.

*Sri M. V. RAMA RAO (Minister for Home and Law).—Sir, I beg to move:

“That the Mysore Legislature (Prevention of Disqualification) Bill, 1956, be taken into consideration.”

Sir, Article 191, clause (a) of the Constitution of India requires that the Legislature of a State should, by law, make provision declaring that the holding of certain offices shall not disqualify the holders thereof from
